NEW YORK, August 3, 1842.

Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly

removed from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving

the afflicted, make known to the world the ineffi-cacy of my preparation for the cure of Sarsaparilla.

In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the ocean first discovered the disease which afterwards proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, in the crown of my head to the sole of my foot

there was no soundness in me! From the time first named down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature is capable of bearing. I have been under care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various special, among others a large quantity of Swain's soda, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment,

and myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also alone. I was induced to believe my case a desperate one.

August last, by the advice of friends, I went to New York City Hospital, but was there told my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless, skin thickened and cracked, blood and water ran, and life itself became almost a burden.

For weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, had spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself

now, and now, by using six or eight bottles, cost-me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I can declare to the world, that after spending

$3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffer-

more than can be told, I was perfectly cured

by your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla,

and now recommend it to all similarly afflicted persons. Those wishing to know further particulars will find at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate any information in relation to the above cure.

JOHN S. SAYWARD, Editor.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1843.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY

 SEE FIRST PAGE.

The Election.

The annual election for State officers took place yesterday. Our city was very quiet, as much so as we have ever known it on a similar occasion. There was no effort or enthusiasm with any party, if we except the self-styled Liberty party, who have kept up a series of caucuses for a long time past. In addition to the indifference manifested by the great mass of the two political parties, the votes indicate no little by-play and mixtion.

There is no choice of Representatives of this city in the legislature, and as our candidates are holders at whatever pain to serve the whigs, so long as they shall desire it, the whigs of Bangor should consider it a pleasure as well as a duty to turn out and put them in, by a full vote at the next trial.

The vote for our popular and worthy candidate for Congress, runs considerably ahead of the whig ticket, a mark of distinguished honor to him in contrast to that of his opponent.

Mr. Kavanaugh has received a handsome vote which is important as showing the estimation in which he is held by a portion of our citizens and the decreasing power of regular nominations and want of confidence in the political integrity of the nominee of the loco party.

If the whole State has voted similar to this city there will not be many officers chosen and a long step be made towards the plurality system.

We subjoin a table showing the state of the votes:

PRACTICAL GEOMETRY IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The introduction of practical geometry into the public schools in the city of New York, has produced a complete revolution in the desire of the pupils to attend, and in fixing their attention upon the exercises of the school and in improving general manners. So much indeed has been accomplished, says the Sun that the pupils found the school hours too short for their work, and some weeks ago asked and received permission to continue it after school, and on Saturday.—Under a partial promise from their teacher to have the room opened at 8 o'clock on one Saturday, some dozen or twenty boys collected at that hour, and waited till 9 o'clock, when they commenced their work, and pursued it unremitting till 12, and then requested the time to be extended another hour. They were also earnest in their requests to have their teacher meet them during the August vacation of their schools.—Boys of the roughest and most boisterous character, very soon became gentlemanly and respectful in their deportment, frequently reproving new comers for unbecoming behavior. The whole secret of the interest and attractions found in these exercises in Practical Geometry is, in one word—employment.

In the exercises of practical geometry all the powers of the mind are awakened. The hand, eye, judgment, imagination, taste and inventive powers are all called into harmonious and pleasurable action; each affording pleasure individually and vastly increased when combined. If this exercise has been found so beneficial in New York, and if there the pupils take pride in preparing a geometrical album and in explaining the various diagrams and figures, and pursue the study with keen relish at school and at home, and at the same time abate nothing in their zeal in other studies, but carry the impulse through the whole, then it appears to us highly desirable that the plan should be generally extended throughout the country.

MILITIA.

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier.

It is true the tinkerers of our laws, who spend the Winter at Augusta at the expense of the people, murder the Militia law together with all others;—but it is nevertheless true that the officers of the Militia oppress and bring down upon the system the disgrace and degradation in which it is at present encompassed, through their ignorance and incompetency. Who, I ask, ever saw a good officer that did not command a good company? and who ever knew a Division, Brigade or Regiment, when the officers were generally good, that the system, within the prescribed limits was not very popular?

Look where you will, in any region of our State or Nation, where the system is become unpopular, a byword and a subject of ridicule by the people, and you will assuredly find a community enveloped in ignorance and degradation. Just so it is with the great family of nations—Show me a virtuous nation where the laws are respected and obeyed, the people enlightened and happy, and I will prove to you that that nation is prepared and able to maintain and protect those great fundamental requisites of peace and happiness. I am led to these few hasty remarks on this subject from reading in the Portland Advertiser, the orders of the Fifth Division for their annual review and inspection. From such an exhibition from so high a source, can it be wondered at that the Militia are degraded in that region? I think not. As an offset to the orders of the Fifth, please publish "verbatim et literatim," the orders of the Ninth Division.

STEUBEN.

STATE OF MAINE.

Head Quarters, Ninth Division,	Bangor, August 4, 1843.

DIVISION ORDER:

The Troops composing this Division will meet for Review and Inspection as follows, viz:

In the First Brigade, the First Regiment on Wednesday the sixth day of September next, with the A Companies of Cavalry and Artillery annexed; the Second Regiment on Thursday the seventh day of September next, with the B and D Companies of Cavalry annexed, together with all the Field and Staff Officers of the Regiment of Cavalry.

In the Second Brigade, the First Regiment on Thursday the fourteenth, the Second Regiment on Monday the eighteenth, with the B Company of Artillery annexed, the Third Regiment with Captain Putnam's Company of Cavalry annexed on Thursday the twenty-first days of September next.

In the First Regiment of Artillery the C and D Companies on Thursday the twelfth day of October next, at which time the Field and Staff Officers of the Regiment will be expected to be present.

The line will be formed and ready to receive the Reviewing Officer at 9 o'clock, A. M. on each of the days above mentioned. The Major General is well aware of the great impediments in the way of a good officer's faithful discharge of his duties, even to his own satisfaction, as well as the many discouragements under which the soldiers generally labor, owing to the imperfection and unpopular organization of our Militia, and the illiberal and inconsistent policy adopted by our Legislators, unbecoming an independent and enlightened assembly, in withholding proper countenance and support, and refusing to disseminate the necessary means of instruction, tending rather to embarrass and break down this essential branch of our free government, than to attach to it importance and respectability it so justly merits, and thereby strengthen the hands and animate the hearts of the soldiery.

But fellow soldiers let us not be unfaithful to our trust but rather let every officer, with increased diligence, endeavor to qualify himself for the proper performance of the charge committed to him; this is expected of us as it is a duty we have sworn to do.

Indeed every citizen should feel it a sacred privilege secured to him, honorable and highly creditable, to bear arms for the common defense of his country and perpetuity of our free institutions, the protection of our civil government, his liberty, rights and all that he holds dear to him, and should cheerfully, at all proper times join in such military instructions as will qualify him for usefulness if called to engage in such service.

The Maj. Gen. was apparently disappointed in witnessing the perfect soldier-like appearance of many of the Regiments at the last review, particularly where the new system of tactics had been introduced, it was exceedingly gratifying to observe the correct, prompt and spirited manner in which the various evolutions were performed, and it seems but reasonable to expect, judging from the Military associations formed in the Regiments, together with the very commendable exertions to excel, that this improvement which has commenced will continue until a high state of Military discipline shall manifest itself throughout the Division.

The Military Laws having been distributed since the adjournment of the Legislature, it is presumed that every officer, has become familiar with the changes that have been made, and that none will plead, a want of this knowledge, for the neglect of any duty.

The Brigadier Generals are hereby charged with the execution of this order throughout their respective Brigades.

J. C. STEVENS, Major General.

E. PAUL, A. D. C.

TATE OF MAINE.

Head Quarters, Second Brigade, 9th Division, Upper Stillwater, August 11, 1843.

BRIGADE ORDER No. 61:

The Troops composing the second Brigade, are hereby required to meet for Inspection and Review, in the months of September and October next, as follows, viz: The First Regiment on Thursday, the fourteenth day of September next; the second Regiment on Monday the eighteenth of September next, with the B Company annexed; the third Regiment with Captain Putnam's Company of Cavalry annexed, on Thursday the twenty-first day of September next.

In the First Regiment of Artillery, the C and D Companies on Thursday the twelfth day of October next, at which time the Field and Staff Officers of the Regiment will be expected to be present.

The line will be formed and ready to receive the Reviewing Officer at nine o'clock, A. M., on each of the days above mentioned.

The Brigadier General feeling a deep interest for the welfare of the Militia, regrets that there are so many impediments in the way to prevent Officers and Soldiers from a full and faithful performance of their duty. He regrets that our Legislators for several years past, have pursued a policy so detrimental to the best interest of this time-honored Institution, and hopes that a more liberal and consistent policy will be adopted.—Our Legislators have not made the necessary appropriations, and our Militia is almost deficient of the means of instruction. Officers are elected and commissioned, and called upon to perform duty, who are unable (from these causes) to inform themselves what their duties are, and how they shall be performed, and the whole System has in some measure been brought into disrepute by this contracted State Policy and by the enactment of Laws subversive to its best interests.

In a free government like ours, where all sovereignty is vested in the people, the importance of a good Citizen Soldier is most apparent. The Constitution gives to us the right of Suffrage, thereby constituting the People Lawgivers; and the same Constitution gives to us the right to keep and bear arms, thereby making the people the law enforcers.

Fellow Soldiers—the right to keep and bear arms is indeed a sacred privilege; you are the guardians of our boasted Temple of Liberty! you are our National Bulwark of defence! and the faithful performance of your duty you owe to your country, and to the memory of your forefathers, the founders of your government.

The attention of the Officers is directed to the General Order of July 27, 1842; directing the Uniform and Equipments of the Officers, and it is expected that its requirements will be strictly adhered to.

The Brigadier General refers the Troops under his command, to the favorable expressions of the Major General, in relation to the Soldier-like appearance of the Troops at the last Review, and trusts that their appearance will be as creditable to them as it was at the last Review.

The Commanders of Regiments, and of Corps, are hereby charged with the observance of the Division Order of August 4th accompanying this, and with the execution of this Brigade Order, throughout their respective commands.

SAMUEL F. HERSEY, Brigadier General.

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

OR VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL MEDICINE

CURATIVE

OF THE

French College of Health, in Paris.

THE following letter was received yesterday by mail from Salem. It gives another evidence of the great success of Lorraine's Vegetable Universal Pills.

Sir—I have been for many years a sufferer from the ravages of Scrofula and Cancerous Humors, which at last seated on the vitals, and exhibited all the threatening symptoms of consumption. The general ineffectual of all remedies awakened my enquiries as to the thousand different methods of cure,

to most of which I had recourse without receiving benefit. I accidentally noticed a remarkable cure by Lorraine's Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. I sent to Boston and got a box. By the use of them I found immediate relief and was soon restored to a perfect state of health.

J. E. NEWHALL.

Salem, 21st May, 1841.

The following letter from J. B. Light, Esq. is also thy of notice.

Sir—I took one of Lorraine's Vegetable Pills last evening for a pain in my head, that had effected me for several days, occasioned by taking cold. I soon felt very calm, and quiet, and a state of general repose came, which had great charms, and I enjoy ed one of the most comfortable and refreshing nights

rest that I ever did in my life. I rose in the morning in my usual state of health, and believe it is my duty to recommend this medicine.

Yours truly,

J. B. LIGHT.

[From Boston Daily Mail.]

Somebody wisely says, that a cap loaded with sweat and flowers will not cure the headache, nor gold chains prevent the consumption. Lorraine's

Vegetable Pills have done both.

Sir—I have been effectually cured of a severe headache by the use of Lorraine's Pills.

SARAH NOYES.

Sir—My daughter had all the threatening symptoms of a Consumption, such as cough, pain in the side, &c., together with general debility, but has had her health restored by Lorraine's Pills.

REV. J. KNIGHT.

New York City, Nov. 1, 1841.

Family Medicine.

Sir—I have used Lorraine's Pills in my family as a family medicine, and I would most earnestly recommend them to all persons, as the best medicine that can be procured. I would not be without them

—they operate mildly, and never fail to give immediate relief. Until I used these Pills I was obliged to pay from $20 to $100 per year for medicines

and physicians, since then I have had no other doctor than Dr. Lorraine's Pills. JAMES NEAL.

Hartford, Conn. July 8.

Lame Back.

Sarah Snow was cured of a lame back in one day,

when she had been unable to dress herself alone for two weeks.

Susan Jones of Boston, cured in 36 hours of lame back and side of three weeks standing.

Sick Headache.

Mrs. Bird of Providence says, that Lorraine's

Pills have proved a real blessing to her. It has published any thing that has been brought to her public notice. I have been cured of a sick headache that had afflicted me for years, by the use of Lorraine's

Pills.

THE CONDITION.

The condition upon which nature gives health to man, is a watchful care to keep his stomach and bowels free from morbid and unhealthy accumulations. Lorraine's Pills admirably effect this, because they cleanse the bowels and purify the blood.

The human body is always healthy when the bowels are regular, the blood circulates freely, and disease invariably commences when obstructions

take place in the bowels.

The extraordinary virtues of Lorraine's Pills depends upon extracts of over 50 different vegetables,

all so admirably combined as to purify, nourish and invigorate the human system.
